

YTN Korean National News channel: EnoB 2013 Christmas Concert

“Happily finishing up the year together with our neighbors through music”

YTN News Anchor: At the end of the year, we look around to see our neighbors who are poor and sick. There is a Korean musical organization in New York that is reaching out to those who are in need of help. Reporter Chang-Jong Kim will lead you to their performances that are full of heart-warming music and emotions.

[Reporter]

It's snowing outside and there are rhythmic carols resounding on this small stage.

Christmas music concert in welfare facility

There are no colorful lightings but everyone become one with the music.

[Interview: Sun-Duk Jeon, Director of welfare facility for disabilities]

“We thank everyone for taking their time to coming to our facility in spite of massive snow storm”

This performance has been provided by a Korean service organization based in New York for the past 7 years.

It is to bring hope and courage to Korean disabled children.

[Interview: Hae-sun Suh, Hyungjin Cha, EnoB Performer]

“It makes me happy to giving back to our society something good through my talent.”

EnoB organization performed more than 100 times to hospitals nursing homes where it's difficult for them to experience cultural performance activities.

This service was possible through more 300 Korean American sponsors.

[Interview: Tae-Wok Kang, President of EnoB]

“I wish I could reach out to other Koreans who are in need in a wide variety of places such as Seoul, China, and North Korea.”

Music gift to our isolated neighbors.

Love that is full of love fulfils our heart as happiness multiply as you share.

[Interview]

"Merry Christmas"

Chang-Jong Kim from New York YTN World